

The ULTIMATE Mentor Training Passing On Your Legacy

An alarming number of young men are not maturing into healthy, responsible adults. Given the opportunity, they will follow men of purpose and integrity. Our communities will not survive if honorable men do not step up to mentor young men. This training gives you the knowledge and resources you need to transmit your masculine wisdom and spiritual strength to the next generation of men.

The RIGHT Way® method of leadership has helped fathers, coaches, teachers and mentors realize their true potential and guide young men. This Way includes powerful physical & spiritual practices from ancient traditions and modern technologies. You will graduate with honor after serving as a mentor at The Young Men's Ultimate Weekend, a modern rites of passage initiation for young men.
